Wednesday is the Solemnity of the Assumption of Our Lady and is a Holy Day of Obligation

Pope Francis says: Jesus underlines that he has not come into this world to give something, but to give himself, his life, as nourishment for those who have faith in Him. Every time that we participate in Holy Mass and we are nourished by the Body of Christ, the presence of Jesus and of the Holy Spirit acts in us, shaping our hearts, communicating an interior disposition to us that translates into conduct according to the Gospel. The charity of Christ, welcomed with an open heart, changes us, transforms us, renders us capable of loving not according to human measure, always limited, but according to the measure of God. And what is the measure of God? Without measure! And so we become capable of loving even those who do not love us: and this is not easy. Opposing evil with good, with pardon, with sharing, with welcome. Thanks to Jesus and to his Spirit, even our life becomes "bread broken" for our brothers. And living like this we discover true joy! The joy of making of oneself a gift, of reciprocating the great gift that we have first received, without merit of our own. This is beautiful: our life is made a gift! (Angelus, 22 June 2014)

This week's Saints

Saint Jane Frances de Chantal: she was born in Dijon in 1572, and was married with six children. After the death of her husband she entered religious life and founded the Visitation Order. She died in 1641.

Saint Maximilian Mary Kolbe: born in Poland in 1894, he became a Franciscan in 1910. He was arrested by the invading German forces in 1939 and sentenced to heavy labour in the extermination camp at Auschwitz; when a married man was chosen to be executed, Maximilian volunteered to take his place: he was killed by lethal injection on 14 August 1941. He was canonised in 1982 in the presence of the man whose life he saved.

Saint Stephen of Hungary: crowned as King in the year 1000, Stephen was just, peaceful and religious, and dedicated to spreading Christianity in his realm. He established dioceses and strengthened the life of the Church; he died in 1038.

Saint John Eudes: born in 1601, John became a priest and a Missioner, travelling to many parishes in his native France. He propagated devotion to the Sacred Heart, and founded a congregation to promote the formation of priests; he also founded the Congregation of Our Lady of the Refuge, to rescue women and girls trying to escape from a life of prostitution. He died in 1680.
