This week's Saints

20 June. Saint Alban: Britain's first saint. He died in a persecution in the middle of the 3rd century. According to the story, he was a pagan soldier who sheltered a priest and was converted. He dressed as the priest, and was executed in his place.

21 June. Saint Aloysius Gonzaga: born into a noble Italian family in 1568, he entered the Jesuits at the age of 17. He worked to help the victims of the Roman plague in 1591, but contracted it and died, aged only 23.

22 June. Saint John Fisher and Saint Thomas More: John was born at Beverley (Yorkshire) in 1469, and died at London on 22 June 1535. He was appointed bishop of Rochester and combined pastoral ministry with study and writing, especially in defence of Catholic doctrine. Thomas More was born in London in 1478, and died there on this day in 1535. An Oxford scholar and an incorruptible judge who served as Speaker and Lord Chancellor. Both were drawn into conflict with Henry VIII over his "remarriage" and papal supremacy. Both were imprisoned and beheaded for treason.

23 June. Saint Etheldreda (Audrey): born in Suffolk, died at Ely in 679. She was the founder of the monastery there. Most popular of Anglo-Saxon saints, famed for her virginity (despite being married twice) and austerity.
